go to your heart space and ask for:

Demethylation of genome BRCA 1 (restores connection to soul and spirit).

Methylation of genome 53BP 1 (expels demon from thyroid) and closes thyroid.

Demethylation of Genome IFI 27 (gives permanent protection against Covid).

Demethylation = activation, the other deactivation.

When spike proteins enter cell nucleus they paralyze certain proteins which determine illness or health. At the genetic level we have 2 genes-BRCA 1 and 53 BP1, one is methylated the other demethylated. When healthy, the spirit is bound tight to body, we inhabit the body closely. DNA is mastered by the soul and the thyroid is closed. When the body turns to illness, the soul gets unbound from body. That's why when you are ill you feel gloomy. The thyroid opens for a demon who takes over the organization of the body. During illness when the spike protein comes in, the soul goes on distance permanently and demon stays permanently in control of body =this is the first mechanism of speaking first affirmation (epigenetic) = soul comes back.

Genome IFI 27 was found on nurses that didn't catch covid even though exposed to covid patients heavily-They have IFI 27 activated and have strong protection against interferon alpha. This is found by observation through microscope. What happens when spike proteins enter cells is those genes have been very well observed and they regulate breast cancer. That's why Angelina Jolie has removed her breasts because she does not BRCA 1 genome. This is a gene defect. Self-organization of the body is only possible in a restricted way-that's why 85% of woman get breast cancer. Those genes are necessary for self-reparation of DNA.

When we succeed in switching off the self-reparation mechanism of the DNA then we can through 6 vaccinations and boosters, push through a genetic modification program and nature will not interfere with reparation of the damage in the meantime.

What makes the body so magnetic, is the vaxxines and partly also, the covid mechanisms destroy hemoglobin, the red color in the blood, that is what carries oxygen, that's why people died from suffocation. It's also why scissors, etc. stick to the body. When hemoglobin is destroyed, ferrum is freed and the ferrum is stored non-permanently as ferritin, that's double worthy ferrum (bivalent) that's what makes us magnetic. Ferritin is magnetic-covid damages the blood heavily. Bloodbodies get stiff, usually when blood goes through the capillaries the bloodbody makes itself very small and long.

They have observed a transition of spike proteins, how many of the graphene nanotubes is involved during shedding. Info from nonhuman source: during shedding 15% of cells are reprogrammed, with vaxxed 100%. This can be fake-they have no data on that. During shedding: demon jumps on other person, that has been observed many times. On thyroid, thyroid does something different: makes deficiency of calcium. so we have a lack of calcium and too much ferrum with the ferritin. One has to check what in the body is affected by this unbalance and that is the piezo crystals. On bones and organs we have clusters of small crystals that in their natural composition are calcium phosphate, which is a crystal in a hexagon. The emotional body is attached to it. When there is a lack of calcium and flow in the body with iron - calcium is bivalent as is ferritin, and is substituted in the dissolving piezo crystals - the hexagonal is extracted and gets repaired by the body with iron phosphate which is what is available - which is orthorhombic: which means rectangular structures which matches the darpa hydrogel in the body: One can only produce rectangular fields of consciousness - that means functioning mentally only. Emotional body gets dismissed - emotional body gets fed from the lower chakras and rotational symmetry of the fields is trigonal or hexagonal, 3 or 6 symmetry, mental body above and down, left to right is binary 180-degree or 90-degree relationship in field symmetry. When all hexagonal piezo crystals in the body through the orthorhombic get replaced, one loses the ability to produce emotional fields. The emotional body gets displaced as it happens when we have trauma and the whole body is open and free for occupation of orthogonal or binary consciousness. These are the archons and demons. they will completely occupy your lower body, all our choice.

Conclusion: What covid does is switch off the self-reparation of DNA, so genetic change through vaxx is open, the eternal soul gets pushed away - the emotional body gets pushed out.
