

December 21st birth of the anti-christ system? May 27th 2021 show:

"Yes like we revealed in the show have the gods returned with Macron and Trump, which is Macron same name and Cyrus of the past. Here's where it gets interesting, French President Emmanuel Macron was born on December 21st.

The same day of "The Great Conjunction" between Jupiter and Saturn. On Monday December 21st, the two biggest planets in our solar system will be only one tenth of a degree apart, giving the pair the look of one elongated star.

The 2020 merging of Jupiter and Saturn will be the closest since 1226. So, it's been almost 800 years since Jupiter and Saturn have been this closely aligned.

From an esoteric spiritual view point does December 21st point to the birth of the anti-christ system, which will follow in the close footsteps of the Great Reset?

As one member this week put it and I agree with his insight, is the anti-christ a bad or a good thing?

Have we determined what is the christ or whether it is benevolent? Their books tell you it is benevolent, but their books are filled with lies and their story, not ours.

Could the anti-christ be the return of the organic source? that is a question not a statement.

The Great Conjunction will also occur on one of the eight holiest Satanic Holidays, the Winter solstice at 6:12 a.m. EST on Friday, December 21st.

The sun will reach a point where it will appear to shine farthest to the south of the equator, over the Tropic of Capricorn, thus marking the moment of the winter solstice.

Adding another layer to this occultic mix is Saturn, the other planet in "The Great Conjunction."

Known as the old sun and dark lord, symbolized as an eye, bull, owl, and Moloch.

The eye of Ra, the papal bull, the Bohemian owl, owl in Egyptian is Molech, which is Moloch, the human child sacrificer.

In the esoteric Luciferian religion, Saturn's crescent ring is believed to be held up by the twin pillars of Freemasonry, Boaz and Jachin.

Saturnism is Satanism, Lucifer is one with Saturn, here is the rest of the Satanic family tree.

Cronos the Nephilim, was the son of Uranus and Gaia, Father of Poseidon and Hades Greek god of Saturn, father time/grim reaper/ sun of death/the black one.

Saturn is also known as the purple planet, represents Kali, the Hindu Goddess of death and time.

That is a major revelation to my own story Saturn was the purple planet, oh my.

Red and Blue are the alchemical primary colors.

In the occult, Jubilees celebrates the resurrected Saturn, ushering in the Prince of Darkness and the Age of Aquarius/New Atlantis.

So, the new age promoted Age of Aquarius is a dark Satanic age, with their fabled Atlantis representing not light, but as I had portrayed it, as dark.

Remember when I said back in December I will be going back to the hidden war and certain things were prevented, there is one of your things prevented that month."

you are the light, you are the beacon, you are the savior. May 27th show:

"People are seeking out who to attach with these days, speak your truth and you will find out who belongs alongside you and who doesn't. As we enter the time train and see the light in the tunnel, one has to ask who or what is that light?

Does the tunnel really exist? or is that tunnel you? your own version of the Matryoska the Russian doll, symbolizing the entrapment of the White Race.

Boxes or dolls they created for you, all of which we followed, like a latter day sleeping pod.

The time for slumber is over for some on this planet, we awaken in sync with the Day of the Svarog, and our time has come.

Sadly, many will remain in their slumber as their waking dream illusions keeps them in stasis, and there they will remain until they learn to pass the test of life.

This brings in the vortex as above so below and in the middle there is the void, the singularity, the darkness, the realm of the dark they say where nothing exists.

But they lied, the void is only dark because you stepped into it and never turned on your beacon of light, perhaps turning on your beacons perhaps makes more sense now.

As you emerge out of the vortex or the Matryoska you will see the light at the end of the tunnel was you all along, as above so below, as within so without.

Those at the east and west gates have a choice to make, do you go to the light or do you create your own by turning on your light? you are the light, you are the beacon, you are the savior.

From there you are tasked with another test, to use your creator given creativity powers, to create something better than what has gone before.

I often hear a yearning for the good old days, that is non thinking, as the past and ideas and ideals of a better past is an illusion, a magic trick, mirror magic all rolled into one.

The past was never better here, it was all an illusion and ranking the severity of enslavement in certain degrees of uncomfortable, 1% of slavery is still as bad as 100%, because from that ensconement, you are still a slave.

The key is to step out of your enslavement, your boxes, your dolls and your limitations and go forward, not back, with creativity of new, not a rehash of the old illusionary world. "
